

On a class of Optimal Transport problems with repulsive cost functions

A. Gerolin

The goal of this communication is to present a new class of optimal transport problems with repulsive cost functions motivated by Density Functional Theory. I want highlight some issues and point out our progress regarding the existence of Monge-type solutions in this setting.